Problem of the Day

• A derangement is a permutation $p$ of $\{1,\ldots, n\}$ such that no item is in its proper position, i.e. $p_i \neq i$ for all $1 \leq i \leq n$.

• Write an efficient backtracking program with pruning that constructs all the derangements of $n$ items.