

HTML Tag Quick Reference

All tags require closing tags unless otherwise noted.

General Document Formatting

Tag	Meaning	Attributes
 	Line break	No closing tag needed
	Document section/division
<h1> through <h6>	Heading/section (h1) through sub-sub-subsection (h6)	h1 is the largest, h6 is the smallest
	Paragraph
	Group of inline elements

Text Formatting

Tag	Meaning	Attributes
	Bold text
<blockquote>	Block quotation
<cite>	Citation, like for a book title
<code>	Computer code style
	Emphasized text
<hr>	Horizontal rule (line)	No closing tag needed
	Italicized text
<pre>	Pre-formatted text
<q>	Quotation
<s>	Strikethrough text
<small>	Smaller text
	Important/strong emphasized text
<sub>	Subscript
<sup>	Superscript
	Underlined text

Lists

Tag	Meaning	Attributes
<dl>	Definition list (like a glossary)
<dt>	Definition term (keyword)
<dd>	Definition data (item text)
	Ordered (numbered) list
	Unordered (bulleted) list
	List item	Used for ordered and unordered lists

Tables

Tag	Meaning	Attributes
<table>	Table opening/closing tag
<tr>	Table row opening/closing tag
<th>	Table header cell
<td>	Table data cell

Miscellaneous

Tag	Meaning	Attributes
	Anchor (used for hyperlinks)	<code>href = URL to link to</code>
	Image	<code>src = Path/URL to image file</code> <code>alt = Alternate text to display</code> width and height: used to scale image No closing tag needed