2. Check Your Review Assignments

Once logged into the system, if you click on "Submissions" inside the top menu, you'll be shown the list of all the submissions in your assigned track. Note: If you log in as a author, please change the role, which is shown in Section 4, as PC member.

The "My papers" list shows you only the papers you have to review.

3. Start Reviewing

In the "My papers" section, a list of all submissions assigned to you will be shown. For each one of them you have access to its Details, you can download it by clicking the Paper icon. You can also download all the papers you have to review at once, just by clicking on the "Download these submissions" link on the top right.

Now you'll have the chance to directly add your review:

In the "Paper and reviewer information" you can specify if this review is made by yourself or by someone else. Of course you will do the review yourself.

The "Evaluation" frame is particularly important, as it contains the parameters that will be used to calculate the final rating, that is, the Overall evaluation, the Reviewer's confidence and the detailed evaluation. Please fill in all scores and complete all text boxes. Your text comments need to justify your numerical scoring. Point out both strengths and weaknesses. For the latter, also state how a certain weakness might be improved. Please refrain from sarcastic and belittling remarks – use good reviewer's etiquette.

Once you have completed the review form, click on the "Submit review" button at the end of the form.

If everything went ok, you'll be shown a similar message such as the following.
