

Welcome to the Long Island Museum's Movie Trivia Quiz!
Click the ticket window below and enjoy the show!

Watch the introduction movie if this is your first time taking the quiz.

Click your ticket below on the right to start the quiz.

Click the film strip below on the left to replay the movie.

The quiz has 10 questions. You have about a minute to answer each. Good luck!

START QUIZ

Monsieur Beaucaire was one of the most lavishly costumed pictures of the silent era. Who was its star? Click on his photo!

GO NEXT

Movie-making left Long Island and migrated west to Hollywood in the 1920s and 1930s. Why did that happen? Click on your answer!

It was less expensive to make films in California.

There was more land there available for bigger studios.

The Great Depression pushed many Broadway professionals into the film business full time.

All of the above.

GO NEXT

